DEFENDANT, HORTON, INC.'S MOTION TO COMPEL RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES AND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

1. On July 1, 2002, plaintiffs filed a Complaint in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Trial Division. The case is a products liability suit which seeks recovery of money damages for injuries sustained by the plaintiff, Shakil Ahmed, when he caught his right, middle and ring fingers in a feminine napkin making machine.
2. On or about July 11, 2002, defendant, Horton, Inc. removed this matter to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
3. On or about August 19, 2002 defendant served plaintiffs' attorney an original and one copy of its Interrogatories Sets I and II, as well as a Request For Production of Documents. (A copy of the cover letter is attached hereto as Exhibit "A.")
4. Thirty days have elapsed since service of the Interrogatories and Request For Production and no answers or objections have been received.

WHEREFORE, defendant, Horton, Inc. requests the Court enter the attached Order.
